VIRTUAL SEMINAR SERIES Oct 2015

safe work australia

2015 Virtual Seminar Series this October

To celebrate National Safe Work month, Safe Work Australia hosts a series of free online seminars that showcase the latest thinking, innovation, research and developments in work health and safety.

The seminars feature business leaders, academics and work health and safety experts sharing ideas, experiences, skills and knowledge to improve the lives of Australian workers.

Program items include live broadcasts, online Q&A sessions, and a range of resources including case studies, research, and ideas to support your own work health safety activities.

For a copy of the program, more information or to receive updates on this event visit www.swa.gov.au and subscribe to our social media feeds.
